

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Sunrise, 4:26; sunset, 7:25.

Jos. Ockay, 1243 W. Huron, milk wagon driver, fatally injured. Wagon hit by street car.

Abraham Anteple, 2840 W. 12th, fell into vat of boiling water at Vette & Zunker plant, 220 N. Green. May recover.

Coroner's jury unable to decide whether Mrs. Fannie Kropo, 1811 Laflin, fell or jumped from 4th floor of Mercy hospital. Was temporarily deranged.

Fire. Wells school, did $200 damage.

Auto of Mrs. John Jackel, 3258 N. Oakley av., stolen. Another one left in front of door, but city custodian won't let her keep it in place of one stolen.

Prof. J. G. Sinclair, U. of C., says color blindness is hereditary and can be eliminated by restriction in mating.

No refreshments will be served on municipal pier till mayor gets home from New York and signs John Z. Vogelsang's contract.

Armour Soap Works, 3130 Benson, fined $200 for dumping refuse in the river.

Miss Anny Nyman, cabaret singer, 1050 Wellington av., awakened by man who told her to keep still; then he robbed dresser. Got $36.50.

Earl Hind, 1242 N. LaSalle, salesman for Marshall Field & Co., beaten and robbed of $31.

Frank Spezzellia, 1135 Milton av., dead. Was shot by Polita Morzickera Friday night when Frank Gerambia was killed in quarrel over bag of popcorn.

Bankruptcy proceedings filed against proprietors of three downtown restaurants: Good Eats cafeteria, 52 W. Harrison; Thadwa Inn, 34 E. Monroe, and Wabash Inn, 524 Wabash.

Eveyn Schubert, 15 months, 4925 S. Konensky av., drowned in three inches of water in hole in front yard.

After eight trips before police trial board for intoxication, Policeman P. J. Keane, Fillmore av. station, fired from force.

When sister Edith wouldn't give him animal crackers, Geo. Jennison said he would commit suicide. Brother Harley kicked down door, found George almost unconscious. Gas jet open.

Lazarus Lewinthal, Smith Piano Co., 311 S. Wabash av., rewedded divorced wife. Reconciled through child.

Eight arrested yesterday in E. Chicago av. police district for spitting on sidewalks.

Frank Malek, 11, 1511 Cornell, armed with jackknife and $8, tried to buy ticket at Union station for Texas border.

Mayor Thompson given jolt by Republican national committee when Fred W. Upham, former Progressive leader, was made ass't treasurer of Hughes campaign for western territory.

Mrs. Wm. J. Slade, 3706 N. Racine av., wife of board of trade dealer, took poison by mistake. Expected to recover.

Lieut. Wm. D. Ambrose, dismissed from police dep't in 1911, restored to his position by special order of Chief Healey.

Twenty-four hundred have signed petition to have Wm. Lorimer run for congress.

County board approved bond issue of $1,800,000 for Cook county road work.

John McCloskey, foreman in Ford plant, Detroit, spent two days and $100 at Blackstone learning how a millionaire lives. Went home "busted," but happy.

Chief Healey says charges will be lodged against members of Patrolmen's Social, Athletic and Efficiency club unless it is disbanded at once.

Chief Justice Olson orders that leniency to auto thieves must end.